

We Are Tiger: A Gift (Oliver Emanuel)

I Am Tiger starts with a surprising gift. In a cardboard box.

Everyone likes a gift.

Even if it's not what we asked for.

Or maybe sometimes because it's not what we asked for.

A gift changes how we feel, how our day may turn out.

And sometimes, sometimes it's changes everything.

So.

What I'd like you to think about is a story, poem, scene where a character receives a surprising gift.

Inside can be anything.

Money, time, space no object.

Make it whatever you can imagine.

But whatever it is, it should change the person who receives it.

Good luck!
